Position Title: U.S. Probation Officer
Starting Salary Range: Classification Levels 23-28 ($33,355 - $63,417)
 Based on Qualifications and Experience
Target Start Date: Until filled

DESCRIPTION OF DISTRICT, PROBATION OFFICE, WORKLOAD AND DUTIES:

District: The Northern District of New York encompasses 32 counties. There are five district court judges, five senior judges, five full-time magistrate judges, and one part-time magistrate judge.

Probation Office: The probation office is headquartered in Syracuse and has divisional offices in Albany and Binghamton.

Workload: Present workload includes supervision of probationers, supervised releasees, parolees, military parolees, pretrial releasees and pretrial diversion cases and the preparation of pretrial and presentence investigations and other types of investigations for the Court.

Representative Duties: A probation officer performs duties and responsibilities such as, but not limited to, the following:

1. Investigates defendants and makes recommendations to the Court related to matters of bail. Insures public safety through the monitoring and supervision of defendants placed under Pretrial supervision by the Court.
2. Conducts investigations and prepares reports for the Court with recommendations for sentencing of individuals convicted of federal offenses. The preparation of these reports requires interviewing defendants and their families, investigating the offense, prior record and financial status of the defendant, and contacting law enforcement agencies, attorneys, crime victims, schools, churches, and civic organizations. An integral part of the process is the interpretation and application of the U.S. Sentencing Commission guidelines and relevant case law.
3. Following disclosure of the presentence report to the parties, analyzes any objections and determines appropriate course of action which includes resolving disputed issues and/or presenting unresolved issues to the Court for resolution.
4. Presents presentence report and sentencing recommendations to the Court. Responds to judicial officer's request for information and advice. Serves as resource to the Court to facilitate proper imposition of sentence.
5. Supervises offenders to maximize adherence to imposed conditions, reduce risk to the community, and provide correctional treatment.
6. Maintains personal contact with offenders through office and community visits and by telephone. Responsible for detection of substance abuse. Through assessment and counseling implements necessary treatment.
7. Initiates contact with, replies to and seeks information from a variety of law enforcement and other organizations such as the U.S. Parole Commission, Bureau of Prisons, and attorneys concerning offenders' behavior and conditions of supervision. Detects, investigates and reports violations and implements appropriate alternatives and sanctions. Prepares reports and makes recommendations for disposition. Testifies at Court or parole hearings.
8. Conducts preliminary interviews and other investigations as required.
9. Maintains a detailed written record of case activity.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of academic study, such as criminal justice, criminology, psychology, sociology, human relations, or business or public administration.

COMPETITIVE FACTORS: Applicants possessing a Masters degree and three years of specialized experience are preferred. Bilingual (Spanish) desired.

SPECIALIZED EXPERIENCE: Progressively responsible experience, gained after completion of a bachelor's degree, in such fields as probation, pretrial services, parole, corrections, criminal investigations, or work in substance/addiction treatment. Experience as a police, custodial, or security officer, other than any criminal investigative experience, is not creditable.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS AND MAXIMUM ENTRY AGE: The duties of probation officers, pretrial services officers, and probation officer assistants require the investigation and management of alleged criminal defendants or convicted offenders who present physical danger to officers and to the public. The supervision, treatment, and control of these offenders, requires moderate to arduous physical exercise, including prolonged periods of walking and standing, physical dexterity and coordination necessary for officer safety, and use of self-defense tactics. On a daily basis, officers face unusual mental and physical stress because they are subject to danger and possible harm during frequent, direct contact with individuals who are suspected or convicted of committing federal offenses.

Because officers must effectively deal with physical attacks and are subject to moderate to arduous physical exertion, they must be physically capable. Officers must possess, with or without corrective lenses, good distance vision in at least one eye and the ability to read normal size print. Normal hearing ability, with or without a hearing aid, is also required. First-time appointees to positions covered under law enforcement retirement provisions must not have reached their 37th birthday at the time of appointment.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION, DRUG SCREENING AND MEDICAL STANDARDS: Prior to appointment, the selectee considered for this position will undergo a medical examination and drug screening. Upon successful completion of the medical examination and drug screening, the selectee may then be appointed provisionally, pending a favorable suitability determination by the Court. The final candidate must successfully complete a ten-year background investigation conducted by the Office of Personnel Management. In addition, as conditions of employment, the incumbent will be subject to ongoing random drug screening, updated background investigations every five years and, as deemed necessary by management for reasonable cause, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations.

The medical requirements and the essential job functions derived from the medical guidelines for probation officers, pretrial service officers and officer assistants are available for public review at <http://www.uscourts.gov/>.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Applicants must be United States citizens or eligible to work in the United States. This position is subject to mandatory Electronic Funds Transfer participation for payroll deposit.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Individuals interested in being considered for the position are invited to submit a cover letter and resume to: Michele B. Louise, HR Director, P.O. Box 7035, Syracuse, New York 13261.

This is an ongoing solicitation for positions at various locations. The U.S. Probation Office has the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, withdraw the announcement or fill the position(s) at any time, any of which may occur without prior written notice. This Court is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
